

The older adult's experience of home

The Home is the place the older adult can not imagine living without

The home, is built with others, it is the place closest to the heart, where the older adult is at home, one's stronghold and place of freedom that has a special atmosphere

The Home is the place the older adult might be forced to leave

The day when there is no other way out - the day the older adult doesn't want to think about

The well known

-The place, closest to the heart where the older adult is at home

The unknown

-The day when there is no other way out