

Fall Risk Assessment

The fall risk assessment takes less than a minute and is a quick way to evaluate if the client has an increased fall risk. If this test shows that there is an increased risk of falling you can perform the fall analysis to be able to give specific advice.

