

Barrier	Group that Identified Barrier
	Health Personnel (n=11)	Parteras (n=7)	Community Women (n=21)
Hospital lacks medicine, equipment and infrastructure
The indigenous population does not want to accept the help that is offered to them
Language barriers
There is not enough diffusion of the program in indigenous communities
Husbands and mothers-in-law, not pregnant women, make decisions regarding birth
The women and their families do not want to be seen by a male doctor
Women prefer to give birth at home
Time is lost in getting to the hospital
Transportation is too expensive
Administrative problems within the Casa Materna
Lack of respect and no compensation for the TBAs
Do not want to be away from family members during birth			