

Difference in mammographic measure between each category and baseline, in multiples of standard deviations