

Reproducibility of Protein Fold Changes Among Biological Replicates. The log₂ fold changes were well controlled, and the majority of the proteins across biological replicates had log₂ fold change less than 2. Dots represent the log₂ fold change for each protein. N = normal, T= tumor, FC = fold change.