

Supplement Figure 2

Supplementary Figure 2. Single clinical variables-based nomogram for predicting 3-year and 5-year overall survival. The risk factors were represented by points on the axis, with each factor corresponding to a line drawn upward. The total points located on the axis indicated the probability of 3-year and 5-year overall survival, represented by a line drawn downward to the survival axis.