

MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

CATEGORIES

Enabling policy environment and networks

Implementing a supportive national structure
Strong voluntarism aimed for increased institutionalization
The ups and downs of innersectorial coordination

Protocols and guidelines steering the health sector response

Participatory development of guidelines
Clinical work: not just following the steps of the protocol

Training of health professionals

Spreading a network of sensitized professionals
Progress made and current uncertain sustainability

Accountability and monitoring

Weakenesses of existing systems: design, application and data utilization

Prevention and promotion

Supposedly a priority but not prioritized in practice