

Figure S1 (A–C) Scanning electron micrographs of longitudinal views of intact dentin with fluoride iontophoresis and self-etch adhesive treatment (original magnification X1000), showing bundle precipitates with the size of 5-10 μm in dentinal tubules at the depth of 8-16 μm.