

RASS-PAL

Strengths of tool

- Ease/Utility of Tool
- Common language/ Standardization
- Assists interprofessional communication

Limitations of tool

- Challenge in differentiating agitation from delirium
- Challenge in capturing mixed delirium
- Burden on health care professionals regarding the accumulation of clinical tools required in daily practice

Potential to improve patient care?

- Assessing/informing and following through to decision-making
- Need for further education/communication when integrating tools into clinical practice