Before vs. after GRIP

Too few measurements are taken Too many measurements are taken Glucose values are often too high Glucose values are often too low Glucose control is running smoothly Glucose control takes much time GRIP specific questions Working with GRIP is simple Technical problems are uncommon GRIP's recommendations make sense Updating a patient is easy GRIP is an improvement over the paper protocol

