

Referral to the Sclerosis Hospitals and initial screening based on returned forms

Written information about the study and invitation to participate

Clinical pre-assessment and oral information about study

Decision to participate and baseline assessment

Randomization

Intervention group
(early admission)

Control group
(usual admission)