

The model starts at the patient level, with an ePRO dataset. New datasets can be sequentially added by warehousing or federated models. The key element is patient-level linkage.

ePRO data

Clinical and administrative data

Clinical trials and research related data

Molecular and biological data

Societal level

National level

Health system level

Clinic level

