

Topic: Uncertainty about diagnosis because of being called into GP practice for so many repeat tests

Quote: "I didn't know I had a problem because I was having blood tests last year for various things and I had my kidney blood test done about three times"

