

Temperature distribution with increasing tissue depth - measured at six power levels and with low contact force (10g)

Temperature distribution with increasing tissue depth - measured at six power levels and with high contact force (90g)

