Inputs	Outputs	Assumptions	Intermediate outputs	Assumptions	Outcomes	Assumptions	Impact
Financing available for contracting	IPM strategy developed and rolled out	Roll-out by region timed to enable lessons learned	Contracts issued to 3PLs	There are mechanisms in place to deal with	Consistent stocks of contraceptives	There is an unmet need for FP	Increase in MCPR
Technical advice & management expertise in place	3PLs hired under performance-based contracts	National storeroom has sufficient stock for regional storerooms	3PLs and truck drivers trained in stock management and LMIS use	unforeseen stock-outs or delivery difficulties  Auxiliary equipment for	method is available at their SDP	Women have knowledge of methods and are willing to use FP  Women have geographical and financial access to FP consultations
	Initial contraceptive stock provided at no cost to SDPs	Regional storerooms have forecasting mechanisms to ensure sufficient stock for 3PLs  3PLs have funds to rent warehouse at regional level	3PLs access contraceptives from regional storeroom	FP is available at SDPs  There are sufficient			Decrease in unmet need for Family Planning
	Training strategy & materials developed for 3PLs		LMIS system used for forecasting SDP orders, and for planning at national and regional levels	providers trained on FP counselling at SDPs  SDP providers give FP		Women are confident that their preferred method is always available in SDPs
	Logistics Management & Information System (LMIS) strategy developed			counselling on all products		FP consultations increase
3PLs available in each region and mapped	Electronic LMIS developed	Contracting strategy ensures 3PL motivation	SDP providers spend less time on stock management	SDP environment is conducive for women wanting to access FP services	Women obtain contraceptives at public SDPs	Some maternal deaths are avertable by an increase in MCPR	Reduction in maternal mortality