

Key components of care management interventions [10]:

- Identification of patients most likely to benefit
- Assessment of individual care needs
- Development of an individual care plan together with patient
- Patient/care-giver education about disease and its management
- Monitoring of how patient is doing over time
- Revision of the care plan if needed