

* 'Stepped up care' refers to the provision of psychological therapies (CBT and hypnotherapy), which are part of the study protocol for the management of IBS patients only