

Dates		Relevant Past Medical History and Interventions
	Down syndrome, formerly 36 weeks of gestational age, previous congenital heart disease. February 2023 rhinitis and intermittent fever with a positive test for Streptococcus Pyogenes oropharyngeal swab, therefore treated with oral antibiotic and antihistamine therapy. February 2023 treatment with 5% permethrin cream because her cohabiting sister was diagnosed with scabies, without post-treatment control evaluation.
Date	Summaries from Initial and Follow-up Visits	Interventions	Results
April 2023	Hospitalization to Fatebenefratelli's Paediatric Ward	Blood tests Allergological and ocular evaluations	Slightly increased ESR and serum amyloid A, positive ANA (1:160) and a reduction of LyB with a relatively higher level of LyT CD8 compared to LyT CD4. Exclusion of any condition related to rheumatologic, topical allergies and signs of uveitis.
April 2023	Dermatologic evaluation	Light microscope	Diagnosis of Norwegian scabies
April 2023	Dermatologic evaluation	Treatment	Topical Benzil Benzoate 25% once a day for 3 days and then for another 3 days after a 5-day break. During the 5-day break topic Desoximetasone once a day for 5 days.
May 2023	1 month's dermatologic follow-up	Dermatologic evaluation	Disease resolution