

Additional file 2: The subgroup analysis showed early RRT initiation within 24 hours was associated with low mortality in patients with AKI after cardiac surgery.