

The first number is the number of ICUs per country, the second the total number of included patients per country.